★ Highlights of the Week: ★

We've had some great Attention Autism session in our Bucket time as we expand the stages we do and think about our routines in class, as well as our friends around us. Lots of love for balloons this week, as we put our faces on them and tried to give the balloon to the right person!

This week we have been thinking about -

- ❖ The RWI speed sounds m,a,s,d,t.
- ❖ How we can count with different nursery rhymes
- ❖ Following schedules in class and around school
- ❖ What can we hear and how we react
