Create a picture to show what you like best about wintertime.	Go for a walk with a grown-up and take a camera to capture some lovely winter photographs.	Write an acrostic poem about a winter word of your choice.	Go on a sensory winter walk with an adult. What can you see? What can you smell or hear?
Create a chart to record how many types of birds you spot outside.	Look out for some of the items on this Winter Snow Hunt Checklist .	Build a snowman and take photographs of him to document how he melts.	Build a sledge for a small toy using household materials.

Work on your throwing skills by throwing snowballs at a target.

Learn some festive songs and spend some time singing with your family or friends.

Write in the snow.

Add food colouring to a spray bottle filled with water, or use a paintbrush, and make some designs in the snow.

Create the perfect winter menu. What would be your ideal meal for the chilly, wintry months?

Make a winter snow globe.
You could use this Winter Snow Globe Christmas Craft Pack to help you!

Wrap up warm and make a snow angel!

Help the birds by scooping out the inside of an orange and filling it with bird seed.
You could even make a pine cone feeder using these handy instructions.

Become a detective and search for animal footprints in the snow.

