

This is a programme for parents of pre-school age children (under 5). It aims to support parents whose child has received a diagnosis of an autism spectrum disorder (ASD). It will help parents/carers to understand more about their child's autism and find ways to develop interactions and communication.

Parents/Carers will learn how to analyse and understand behaviours, and how to use structure, so that problem behaviours can be pre-empted and strategies put in place to help cope with them. To request further information please contact Jane Eales: j.eales@mapleridge.hants.sch.uk or Jacqui Brown: j.brown@mapleridge.hants.sch.uk
