

Oak Class Newsletter

Highlight of the Week:

Friday 11th
October 2024

Wellbeing Afternoon!

On Monday Oak class participated in Wellbeing afternoon, with a focus on our emotions and how they are part of our Wellbeing. We used emojis to discuss this and then made emoji face plate art!

Headteacher's Awards:

George - For amazing spelling work in English - and asking for challenge words!

Phoenix - For using turtle area when he felt uncomfortable.

School Rule Award: Kind

Riley S - For kindly working with his friends to make their builds at choose times.

Learning Notes:

- In English this week we have worked on our sounds, blending and spelling as part of our RWI reading week.
- For Maths we have continued work on Addition and Subtraction, looking at more and less and how they relate to add and subtract.
- In Topic we've enjoyed the Art process of 'printing'.
- In Computing we looked at Everyday Technology devices and how we use them.
- In Forest School this week we created leaf art pictures.
- In PSD we have looked at what 'calm' means and different ways we can feel calm.
- For Music, we have played the Djembe drums whilst using different tempos.

Class Messages:

- There have been some staffing variations in Oak class this week and all the children have coped really well with the change of adults, explaining Oak class rules and showing where things are kept - earning Hermann Helpful tokens!
