

Oak Class Newsletter

Highlight of the Week:

Friday 28th
February 2025

Oak Class 'creating' together.
We looked at different art processes that we could use to 'create' a class picture together.

Headteacher's Awards:

Finn - For brilliantly using a new stretch resource to help himself calm.

Theo - For great following and making algorithm steps in Computing.

School Rule Award: Safe

Riley S - For safely navigating the apparatus in a new PE game.

Learning Notes:

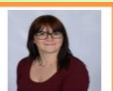

- In English this week we have looked at different types of story, in relation to our Link Book.
- For Maths we have focused on Subtraction.
- In Topic we had looked at 'Creation' for RE.
- In PE we have started our new subject of Outdoor Adventurous Activity, where we will be looking at symbols and spaces and how we travel.
- In Music we have introduced our new instrument of Chime Bars.
- For our PSD we have talked about 'growing' and what is different between babies, children and adults.
- In Computing we have looked at how we control technology with algorithms.

Class Messages:

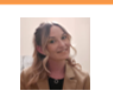

- Oak class loved the 'upgrade' of a new floor that happened over half term and coped really well with the new class layout.
- We have had some different adults in class this week, as some staff have been away helping with the Team 3 residential, and Oak class have been amazing at coping with the changes.
